

WOE BE GONE

BUDGET MEETING NOTES

DATE: FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 2016

START: 9:08 AM

MEETING #: 4

LOCATION: GREENE THEATER

END: 9:45 AM

GENERAL

1. No notes today, thank you!

SCENIC

1. Stationary 8'x12' platform stage right
2. The floor will be black with a rug
3. The back will now be a cyc and scrim
4. 6' wide 8' tall wall that falls, leaving the door remaining standing
5. Joe likes the idea of the wall falling slowly and only part way to the ground – Keith will come back with possibilities of mechanisms and what works best to keep the door functional in the second act without losing too much space onstage
6. Wall may appear to fall onto the armchair
7. A few planned items are: some pictures rigged to go askew, wallpaper that peels, a coat hook (or similar) that falls off
8. Scenic is looking into renderings on wallpaper that could possibly be painted – a less geometrically rigid design may work best to hide the section that will later peel off
9. The coat hook will not need to hold more weight than a scarf or hat before it falls off
10. A hanging lamp flies in for the second act
11. Expecting $700-$1000 on materials
12. Keith would like an industrial grade electromagnet – but if there isn't room in the budget he can find other ways
13. Scenic will be discussing with Joe whether or not the traveler will be needed to cover the intermission change
14. Coming in Thursday for design presentations – please contact Stage Management for the time

COSTUMES

1. Joe will need to decide if Diane needs her hair dyed
2. Paul's hair may be cut
3. Are Paul's goggles costume or prop?
4. Chaplain will not have a nametag
5. Renata is not in jeans
6. Ideally Renata is the only one to get food on their costume – trying to keep food in the fight at a minimum
7. Coming in Thursday for design presentations – please contact Stage Management for the time
