PERFORMANCE SUMMARY:

GENERAL NOTES:

- Wow! Tonight was truly so special. The actors all had some great energy coming back. The audience was SO reactive and attentive. Some audience favorites were the Corporal, Azdak and Shauva's relationship, and the old couple wanting a divorce (a round of applause at their exit!) Timothy St. Amour was a great holder of the head, and again the audience was in awe of the bridge moment. Overall a great performance, but the most special moment was prior to the house opening when we had Rachel's Cousin, who's blind, come in and get a feel of the costumes so he could experience the show more fully. He was very thankful for this opportunity, and the cast was so open and willing to share. At the end he said on of his favorite parts was how the music moved around him. And we are all still crying.
- Strike will take place after the show tomorrow afternoon at 4:20p.
