PERFORMANCE SUMMARY:

We had to hold the house for 11 minutes today because fight call began late due to actors running behind schedule. During preset we discovered that the sidecar had started to become detached from the bike. We decided to not have anyone ride/sit the motorcycle, had issues with the side car staying attached to the motorcycle. We pushed the motorcycle onstage instead of riding it. The audience was receptive to the show, especially James' line after the Aunties are crushed: "Is it wrong that I don't feel sad?"—they got a kick out of that one! The transitions are becoming increasingly smoother. We've also had our best Ladahlord search light/drum roll sequence yet!
