PERFORMANCE SUMMARY:
This evening's show had quite a few friendly faces in the audience! Many designers with their families and people from the PA department in the house. It was a joy to see so many friends enjoying a good evening of theater! We had a few hiccups with the execution of light and sound cues, but nothing drastically dangerous occurred with rail or transition cues, so all in all, quite a success of an evening, if I do say so myself.
