REHEARSAL SUMMARY

This morning Stage Management discovered that our studio reservation had been scheduled for the incorrect block of time and there was another group rehearsing in our studio. Luckily we arrived with enough time to track down OA, and with the help of Production Management, we were able to get into Tuftes and have rehearsal in the Greene Theater. Stage Management successfully contacted the full cast and directorial team to notify them of the change of location. We rehearsed with only the props that could fit in the roadbox, and we began the day with fight call and by running the second half of the show. Afterwards we worked a couple of notes, and successfully ran the whole show.

Props:
1. We think there's a loose connection in the Magic Potion. The light kept flickering on/off.
2. As per discussed after rehearsal, we will no longer be needing the rigged Spider stool.
3. As per discussed after rehearsal, the Magic Bag is shaken around quite a lot during Shake It Up.
4. We're having difficulties getting the Magic Bag to stay upright when we "toss" it on to the deck from the puppet pit at top of show. Per our discussion after rehearsal, a removeable weight could be a solution.
