REHEARSAL SUMMARY

We began rehearsal with running a few puppet sequences and working the rope/bag moment with the Aunties. We managed to do a run of the show even though we were missing our lead actor, and some of the cues were trickier to call without him as there are a considerable amount of visual cues taken off his blocking. We had significant issues with the rail cues especially, and with prop preset. The actors were great sports about plowing ahead and continuing their work as best they could.
