Scenic

1. Thank you for joining us at the Stumble Through today Sean!
2. We'd love to have some actual gross stuff (jelly, coffee grounds, or something else) in two locations downstage on the floor ("linoleum") for Mother to clean up.
3. Please see First Props Add Note. Arlene violently jams an unbent coat hanger into the sink when it is "stopped up."
4. Please see Props Note #6.

Props

Adds

- 2nd Wire Coat Hanger that is unbent and used to try and unstop the sink (will probably need new one for each show)
- Hostess Cupcake within groceries for Arlene to eat
- Please see Scenic Note #2
- Spare chair

Info/Questions

1. Thank you for joining us at the Stumble Through tonight!
2. You are removing the upstage side of the sink unit, correct? We need the stool to slide under here or under the counter unit. Do either of these need to have anything connecting the two sides on the bottom that would prevent us from sliding the stool in? Both the sink and counter get leaned on.

Rehearsal Report #24

3. Please see Costumes Note #2.
4. The dimensions we decided on for the Juvie cot are 5'6" long, 20" wide, and 18" tall (to the top of the mattress). As we talked about, the mattress gets pulled up and we see a bunch of stuff hidden underneath it. Maureen and Lisa will be looking at screw-in, metal Ikea legs (about 14" tall). We only really care about the downstage legs being metal.
5. The apartment bed should be 23" tall to the top of the mattress.
6. Maureen and Lisa discussed having a spare chair in the apartment between the sideboard and the coatrack to use in case the grey one that gets thrown multiple times happens to break.
7. The grocery bag does not have to break. Arlene tripping and everything falling is enough.

Rehearsal Requests

- 3 wire coat hangers

Costumes

Info/Questions

1. Thank you for joining us at the Stumble Through tonight Lauren!
2. Thank you for washing our sheets and blankets! We stole your white laundry basket for today (it works really well as a prop for Mother's laundry basket). Lisa says you had had conversation about using one of Costumes' laundry baskets for a prop. We'll be returning the blue laundry basket we've been using as a prop to the Costume shop tomorrow (as a swap) and would love to keep the white one for the show. Lisa and Costumes, please let us know if this doesn't work for you all.
3. The Kentucky football sweatshirt is great! It just needs to be distressed more (washed many times).
4. Ally will drop off Arlene's costume towel in the shop before 1:00p tomorrow.

- Any update on a throw-able watch for Carl?
