PERFORMANCE NOTES

Another solid performance. A small, fairly reserved crowd. They warmed up a bit as the show went on. Favorite moments included the Act II Loudspeaker and Bennie and Ruby's pose with the plants. The door panel fell all the way off today, and Emily moved it to the spare chair. A nice, lively talkback following.

Scenic:

1. The door panel fell off completely during the show after Carl kicked it fairly lightly. Stage management will install the masonite backup panel and will work it with Carl before tonight's show. The original panel is still completely intact. Is it possible to use this for tomorrow's performance? We would love to glue it back in, if possible.
